PTP INSPIRES GELANG PATAH STUDENTS THROUGH ANNUAL SPM MOTIVATIONAL TALK

Gelang Patah, 20 April 2017 – Port of Tanjung Pelepas (PTP) a Member of MMC Group organised its annual one day SPM Motivational Talk for 120 selected students from 4 secondary schools within Gelang Patah area. The event, held at Lecture Hall, Educity Multiversity Complex, Iskandar Puteri was a joint-effort between PTP and Johor Bahru Education Department.

The program aimed at equipping the students with learning techniques and to improve their performance in the examination. In addition to that, the program provided the students with the right answering techniques and motivated them to be well-prepared for the examination.

Marco Neelsen, Chief Executive Officer of PTP explains that PTP is committed to its principle of responsible corporate citizenship. Through continuous engagement with Johor Bahru Education Department, the programme has been identified as a key enabler that will contribute towards bridging the socio-economic between the urban and rural communities.

“PTP 2017 SPM Motivational Talk is organised as part of PTP’s pledge in alleviating the level of education within its surrounding community. Through this program, we hope that the local students will benefit greatly and take this opportunity as their first stepping stone towards their future successes.” added him.

Rosilah Ahmad from Sekolah Menengah Tanjung Adang lauded PTP’s continuous commitment in assisting the local students to improve their overall academic and non-academic achievements. This exemplary act is the kind of initiative that should be followed by more corporate companies. The program will motivate our students and boost their self-confidence before they sit for the big exam.

Adib Bin Akhairuddin, a participant from SMK Gelang Patah said “I learnt various tips and new skills throughout the program. The activities were very enjoyable and insightful. I will definitely utilise and apply what I have learned and strive better for my studies”.

It has been a decade since PTP’s first organised such program in 2007. More than 2,000 local secondary school students in Gelang Patah have benefited from the program. Apart from the Motivational Talk, PTP has various plans in line for other education related initiatives including the annual PTP English Development Programme, UPSR Motivational Talk, Distribution of schooling aid, PTP educational tour to PTP and many others.
